

Catastrophic Leave Sharing Program Guidelines

The UC Berkeley (UCB) Catastrophic Leave Sharing Program permits an employee to voluntarily donate a portion of their accrued vacation leave to the Catastrophic Leave Donation Bank to be used by other UCB employees (who have exhausted all of their own accrued paid leave benefits) to address events such as:

- A catastrophic injury or illness
- A serious health condition for an employee
- Caring for a catastrophically ill or injured family member or household member
- The death of a family or household member
- A catastrophic casualty loss suffered by an employee such as a terrorist attack, fire, natural disaster, a pandemic, or other event as declared by the Office of the President.

Definitions

These definitions address circumstances such as: a catastrophic injury or illness or serious health condition for an employee; an employee caring for a catastrophically ill or injured family member or household member; the death of a family or household member; a catastrophic casualty loss suffered by an employee due to, for example, a terrorist attack, fire, natural disaster; a pandemic, or other event as declared by the Office of the President.

Catastrophic illness or injury

A serious non-work-related health condition of the employee or employee's family or household (e.g., spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, in-laws, step-relatives in the relationship or individuals residing in the employee's household), which creates a financial hardship because the employee has exhausted all available leave accruals and is not, or not yet, eligible for disability benefits.

Serious Health Condition

A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, physical or mental condition that involves:

1. Any period of incapacity or treatment connected with inpatient care (e.g., an overnight stay) in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility;

2. A period of incapacity requiring the absence of more than three calendar days from work, school, or other regular daily activities that also involve continuing treatment by (or under the supervision of) a licensed healthcare provider;
3. Any period of incapacity due to pregnancy, or for prenatal care;
4. Any period of incapacity or treatment due to a chronic serious health condition (e.g., asthma, diabetes, epilepsy, etc.);
5. A period of incapacity that is permanent or long-term due to a condition for which treatment may be effective (e.g., Alzheimer's, stroke, terminal disease, etc.);
6. Any absence to receive multiple treatments (including any period of recovery) by, or referral by, a licensed healthcare provider (e.g., chemotherapy, physical therapy, dialysis, etc.)

Catastrophic Casualty Loss

A loss suffered by an employee due to a terrorist attack, fire, natural disaster; a pandemic or other event as declared by the Office of the President.

Eligible Recipient (Requestor)

A UCB employee is eligible to receive Catastrophic Leave if they:

1. Are a staff or academic employee who has completed the waiting period to use vacation, if a waiting period is required by the applicable personnel policy or collective bargaining agreement.
2. Are a fiscal-year academic employee who is eligible to accrue and use vacation.
3. Have exhausted all paid leave accruals (vacation, sick, Compensatory Time Off - CTO), or will do so before the return to work date.
4. Recipient must be on a block leave.
5. Have submitted all required leave of absence paperwork and have an approved leave of absence in relation to the catastrophic illness or injury.
6. Are not presently receiving University disability benefits or Workers' Compensation payments. An employee who has applied to receive Workers' Compensation benefits is not eligible to apply for Catastrophic Leave; however, that employee may apply if his/her claim is denied.
7. Have not received any formal disciplinary action for excessive absenteeism during the 12 month period immediately preceding the request for catastrophic leave.
8. The recipient has sole responsibility for assessing the potential impact on taxes and benefits.
9. Intermittent Leaves of Absence or reduced schedules are not eligible.

Eligible Donor

UCB staff employee or academic employee who are eligible to accrue and use vacation.

Donation Leave Credits

Leave that may be donated is defined as accrued whole hours of vacation leave. Donations must be eight (8) hours minimum at any one time. Donor must maintain a minimum balance of eighty (80) hours of vacation accruals at any given time. Donations can be made to the Catastrophic Leave Donation Bank. Leave may not be donated prior to accrual. All donations are irrevocable. Sick leave and compensatory time cannot be donated.

Approved Leave of Absence

Approved leave of absence is defined as the Requestor's required leave paperwork as determined by the type of leave being requested and approved by the department.

Policies and Limitations

The following Catastrophic Leave Sharing Program policies and limitations address circumstances such as: a catastrophic injury or illness or serious health condition for an employee; an employee caring for a catastrophically ill or injured family member or household member; the death of a family or household member; or a catastrophic casualty loss suffered by an employee due to, for example, a terrorist attack, fire, natural disaster; a pandemic or other event as declared by the Office of the President.
