

OUTSIDE THE BOX WORKSHOP SERIES

Celebrating 50 Years of Hip Hop

A CONVERSATION WITH SCHOLAR-ACTIVIST

ROSA CLEMENTE

FALL / PART ONE

THURSDAY
DECEMBER 7

10 AM - 12 PM PST

SPRING / PART TWO

THURSDAY
FEBRUARY 8

10 AM - 12 PM PST

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Rosa Alicia Clemente is an award-winning organizer, speaker, political commentator, producer, independent journalist, scholar-activist and former vice presidential candidate. A leading voice of her generation, the Bronx-born Black-Puerto Rican is frequently sought out for her insight and commentary on Afro-Latinx identity, Black and Latinx liberation movements, police violence, colonialism in Puerto Rico, hip-hop feminism, third-party politics and more.

TO PARTICIPATE

Register online at <https://tinyurl.com/ffhbxdst>.

For questions, contact Katrina Pantig Naval at kpantig@berkeley.edu

Berkeley
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA