OUTSIDE THE BOX

RACE, IDENTITY, & CULTURE

A TWO-PART WORKSHOP SERIES WITH CULTURAL CRITIC AND AUTHOR, JEFF CHANG

FALL / PART ONE
THURSDAY
DECEMBER 8
10 AM - 12 PM PST

SPRING / PART TWO THURSDAY
FEBRUARY 9
11 AM - 1 PM PST

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Jeff Chang is a renowned social historian, organizer, and author. His ground-breaking work in politics, music, arts, and activism has had profound cultural impact in the fight for racial justice. Born and raised in Honolulu, Hawai'i, Jeff Chang is a graduate of 'Iolani School, the University of California at Berkeley, and the University of California at Los Angeles.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

If you are interested and available to attend both sessions, complete an online application. If you have questions, contact Katrina Pantig-Naval at kpantig@berkeley.edu.

DIVERSITY EQUITY INCLUSION & BELONGING

hr.berkeley.edu