

Berkeley People & Culture

Inclusive Leadership Academy

This program brings together a network of campus leaders to engage in a four-workshop series facilitated by campus experts at the Center for Equity, Gender, and Leadership (EGAL). Learning Equity Fluent Leadership will:

- Equip participants with the framework and skills to develop and manage diverse teams
- Prepares participants to be drivers of equitable and inclusive culture
- Build participants' understanding of the value of different lived experiences and the impact of systems of power on historically marginalized communities.

To participate, submit an online application due by January 24th, 2024. For questions, contact Katrina Pantig Naval at kpantig@berkeley.edu.
